

VMS Screens and Cassettes

VMS Screens and Cassettes are sourced from one of the world's leading manufacturer having a world renowned testing facilities that exceeds International quality standards. Today these products stand tall for their compatibility with all conventional films and cassettes available in the market. They are available as an individual product and also with / without factory fitted screens as per the need. It is an unbeatable value proposition supported with best after-sales services through our all India network of branches and dealers.

Screens

VMS Screens are manufactured with high quality aluminum and age-defying protective layers. It comes with perfect film-screen contact with nitrogen-imploded open cell P.U. foam system and a perfectly curved back door profile and textured surface.

VMS Screens

- Improved contrast
- Sharp diagnostic image information
- Reduction in X-ray dosage
- Enables usage of low tube voltage

VMS Cassettes

- Lightweight
- High durability
- Excellent dimensional stability due to indestructible polymer construction

